(MovieMaker Magazine)

More than 4,000 people are expected to attend our 20th anniversary festival in March 2020.

Staffed, organized and operated by a team of volunteers, we depend on corporate contributions to create and sustain our annual festival. There are a number of reasons why supporting the Irish Film Festival, Boston is a good idea. Here are just a few:

- Sponsors receive local, regional, national, and international exposure to a diverse audience and partners in the field.
- Each year, the festival honors Irish pioneers in various facets of filmmaking and sponsors often avail of exclusive opportunities such as meet and greet events with honorees. Past honorees include Gabriel Byrne, Aidan Quinn, Brendan Gleeson, Fionnula Flanagan, John Boorman, and Jim Sheridan.
- As the first point of contact in Boston for sneak-peek previews and premieres of new Irish productions, the Irish Film Festival, Boston succeeds in filling area theaters throughout the year.
- The Irish Film Festival, Boston will release new lines of merchandise in 2020 and opportunities for logo placement exist at certain levels.
- We are a 501(c)3 non-profit and all contributions are fully tax deductible to the extent provided by law.

Boston Irish Film Festival Productions, now a non-profit entity with 501(c) 3 status, was set up in 1999 to celebrate and promote global Irish cinema. The festival quickly became the largest event of its kind outside Ireland. It provides: exhibition, distribution, and educational opportunities for filmmakers, and honors their work with awards.
